DPS INTERNATIONAL GHANA

DPS International Ghana was established in 2010 with the aim of providing high-quality, modern, and holistic education from creche to A-Level. The school was founded under the vision of promoting academic excellence while developing strong moral values such as integrity, honesty, tolerance, compassion, and respect for human values.

The institution was initiated by philanthropist Mr. Mukesh Thakwani, under the broader DPS international education network. The goal was to bring a world-class education system to Ghana and West Africa, using modern teaching methods and global academic standards. Since its establishment, the school has grown rapidly into a fully equipped international institution with advanced facilities such as smart classrooms, science laboratories, libraries, sports complexes, and boarding services. It focuses on creating a learning environment that supports both academic achievement and personal development. DPS Ghana also emphasizes producing well-rounded students who are globally minded, critical thinkers, effective communicators, and responsible citizens who can succeed both locally and internationally.
